

Ohio Faces Coal Crisis---And, Strike Unbroken

(By The Associated Press)
Gov. Frank J. Lausche telegraphed President Truman today that "the coal supply in Ohio is growing acutely scarce."
The governor also issued a proclamation appealing to Ohioans to conserve fuel.
The governor's telegram read:
"The coal supply in Ohio is growing acutely scarce. Reports coming to me from throughout the state indicate that emergency situations have already arisen but local communities have been able thus far to solve them by getting special service.

"The point will be reached within a few days where solution will no longer be possible. I give you this information so you will be acquainted with my view of the situation in Ohio."
Lausche's proclamation appealed to Ohioans to "follow a course under which the available supply will be distributed in accordance with need."
The governor said he had received reports that some consumers, with an adequate supply of coal on hand, were acquiring more.

He urged them to "discontinue, for the time being, acquiring more coal so that allocations can be made to relieve emergency situations that might arise."
COAL SALE DRastically RESTRICTED IN NEW YORK
ALBANY, N. Y., Feb. 23—(AP)—New York State today clamped a virtual ban on the sale of soft coal, except to high priority consumers.

The action came through establishment of an allocation certificate system that provided the severest rationing yet ordered in Gov. Thomas E. Dewey's moves to combat a deepening coal crisis.
The state coal administrator, Bertram D. Tallamy, set up the allocation system in an emergency order effective at midnight tonight.
Tallamy said the new system meant "nobody will get any soft coal" (Please turn to Page Sixteen)

Mercy Killing Carried Out On Husband's Plea, Is Claim

MANCHESTER, N. J., Feb. 23—(AP)—The state said today that Dr. Hermann N. Sander admitted killing a 59-year-old cancer patient with air injections and claimed he did it at the pleading of her husband to relieve her suffering.

Attorney General William L. Phinney made the assertion as he outlined the state's case against the 41-year-old doctor to a 13-man jury trying him for murder. Speaking softly and slowly, Phinney quoted Dr. Sander as saying he knew he "might have broken a law but that the law was not right x x x and should be changed."

Dr. Sander is charged specifically with killing Mrs. Abbie Borroto by giving her air injections as she lay dying of cancer in Hillsboro County Hospital last Dec. 4.

Phinney quoted the doctor as saying this:

"Because of Mr. Borroto's pleadings and because Mr. Borroto was a good friend of his probably in a moment of weakness he injected the air."

Phinney said Sander, also in reply to a question from Dr. Robert Biron, county medical referee, said he thought Mrs. Borroto would have lived probably two more days.

Phinney said the statements he quoted came from a conversation in which Dr. Sander "talked freely and voluntarily" to Dr. Biron. The attorney general told the jury Dr. Sander told Dr. Biron "he realized the consequences of this procedure." Phinney quoted Sander further as saying that "his conscience was clear" and that "morally he believed he was right."

Phinney said Sander told Dr. Biron that he administered 10 cubic centimeters of air successively four times—a total of 40 CC's. The foreman of the jury trying Dr. Sander saw his own wife

REGINALD BORROTO, 65, dries dishes for daughter Elise, 19, in their Manchester, N. H., home while all the world awaits outcome of the trial in which Dr. Hermann N. Sander is accused in "mercy killing" of Abbie, Borroto's cancer-ridden wife. Borroto may be called as a defense witness. (International Soundphoto) die of the same disease last Palm Sunday.

The disclosure was made by Dallas Cutter, Hillsboro grocer and brother of Louis C. Cutter, 40, the jury foreman. The family physician, Dr. Thor Olsen, confirmed the statement.

Attorney General Phinney told reporters he knew Cutter's wife,

Leona, died of cancer when he was seated as a juror.

Both the prosecution and defense indicated Cutter would remain on the jury.

Powers Broadened For Commie Probe

WASHINGTON, Feb. 23—(AP)—Democratic Senate leaders wound up today with even more authority than they had asked to investigate charges by Senator McCarthy (R-Wis.) that a Communist spy ring has been operating in the state department.

Republicans succeeded in getting the Democrats to accept several additions to the original inquiry resolution. These additions would give the inquiry group considerably more power.

Senator Lucas (D-Ill.) said the inquiry, to be made by the state foreign relations committee, will need a few days to start rolling. He said the Senate probably must put up $50,000 to finance it.

After hours of angry debate, Republicans got Lucas to accept these additions to his inquiry:

1. A directive to the investigating group "to procure by subpoena" the secret government loyalty and employment files of government employees facing charges. This was sponsored by Senator Ferguson (R-Mich.).

2. A requirement by Senators Morse (R-Ore.) and Saltonstall (R-Mass.) for open public hearings on any formal charges of disloyalty against any individuals.

3. An amendment by Ferguson which would extend the inquiry to past as well as present state department employees.

Agreement for Fire Protection Is Considered

Mutual Aid with Greenfield Is Requested

An ordinance presented to city council, and read the first time Wednesday night, provides for an agreement with Greenfield for mutual aid in fire fighting during an emergency.

The ordinance was drawn by City Solicitor W. W. Hill after he had received a request from Mayor Dwight Parrett of Greenfield asking for such an agreement.

A copy was sent to the Greenfield mayor, and as soon as that town council adopts a similar measure, the ordinance here will, in all probability, be passed, it was indicated.

The agreement is to be for a assistance in the form of equipment and personnel shall be dispatched to the two towns only upon request of the mayor, City manager, or fire chiefs of the contracting municipalities.

The agreement is to be for a period of three years, starting March 15, and may be terminated by either city giving 90 days notice.

Being a mutual aid agreement, no charge will be made for assistance rendered by either the departments. The contracts provides in part as follows:

"In no case shall either party be liable in damages to the other party, or any of its inhabitants, for failure to answer any fire call or for lack of speed in answering such call, or for any inadequacy of equipment or personnel, negligent operation of fire apparatus, failure to extinguish any fire, or for any cause whatsoever growing out of this contract for the use of the fire apparatus and personnel furnished by either party."

Since only three members of council were present, no other business was taken up. However, sometime was spent in informal discussion of the city building project and other matters.

Socialism in Balance In British Election

LONDON, Feb. 23—(AP)—The British people aimed at a record vote today as they decided whether they want a Socialist government to run their little island kingdom for another five years.

Heavy turnouts at the polls were reported in the early hours of the crucial national election. The choice before more than 34,000,000 voters:

Re-election of Prime Minister Clement Attlee's Laborites, pledged to put still more industries under state control; or a return to the conservative rule of wartime Premier Winston Churchill, who promised to halt nationalization keep most of Britain's welfare state security measures.

The voting was expected to be close. Victory or defeat for the Laborites—in power since July, 1945—hangs chiefly on domestic issues.

$350,000 Loot In Jewels Taken By Hooded Gang

Mather Mansion In Cleveland Is Robbed Efficiently

CLEVELAND, Feb. 23—(AP)—Six hooded bandits boldly burst into the spacious home of multimillionaire William G. Mather early today, slugged his wife and got away with jewelry valued at around $350,000 by the family.

Moving with commando-like precision, the robbers were armed with a sub-machine gun and revolvers, police reported.

Mather, 93-year-old honorary board chairman of the Cleveland Cliffs Iron Co., slept through the entire operation.

Stationing men outside in case the burglar alarm went off, the robbers entered the main residence through a servants' entrance. None of the seven servants heard them.

Then they sauntered into a second floor bedroom, where the 60-year-old Mrs. Mather was asleep and flashed the beam of a flashlight in her face. She awoke to find a man standing over her with a sub machine gun.

She screamed. This woke Walter Russell, 72, a male nurse, who had been sleeping in a room adjoining to the aging Mather.

Mrs. Mather Slugged To stop her screams, the man with the sub machine gun struck her on the side of her face. Then Russell came running into her room.

Three of the robbers, grotesque in hoods that in at least two cases disclosed only the eyes, forced him to his knees and bound and gagged him with adhesive tape.

This done, the apparent leader asked Mrs. Mather: "What is the combination of the safe? We want only money and jewelry. If we get it no one will be seriously hurt."

Mrs. Mather said she did not know the combination, that it was in a book locked in a dresser drawer. At gunpoint she got the book and turned it over to the leader.

After some difficulty, the bandits and Mrs. Mather opened the safe but found it contained only "gold antiques." The robbers then threatened her with further violence and she told them her regular jewelry were in a dressing room cabinet just off her bedroom.

They got the jewelry and escaped.

Before they left, they bound and gagged Mrs. Mather with adhesive tape, too. Then they tied her and Russell to the posts of Mrs. Mather's bed in sitting positions.

Jewelry Loot Included in the loot were three diamond necklaces, a pearl necklace, a diamond pin, a ruby and diamond pendant, a sapphire and diamond ring, a butterfly diamond brooch and two diamond earring clips.

Mrs. Mather said other jewelry was taken, too.

"The jewelry doesn't mean much," she said. "It is purely sentimental. I am confident the police will solve this robbery. We have no insurance on the jewelry."

The Mather's live on a six-acre lake front estate in fashionable suburban Bratenahl.

Cleveland police made their estimate of the number of men in on the robbery from foot prints in the snow outside detached gardeners' and chauffeurs' houses.

The men who entered the mansion, wore arctic type hoods, tan overalls, stockings over their shoes and gloves. One man held a sub-machine gun and two revolvers. The others each carried a revolver.

Throughout the robbery, the Mather's Irish terrier, Pokey, barked excitedly through the house but no one paid any attention.

Within 15 minutes after the bandits left, nurse Russell worked himself free and pressed a He also freed Mrs. Mather. (Please turn to Page Two)

County's New Hospital Is Nearing Completion; To Be Ready in Spring

Fayette County's new hospital is now nearing completion and should be ready for use late in March or early April, it was indicated Thursday.

All windows and doors have been installed. The boilers of the heating plant have been in use for several weeks, drying out the walls and keeping the structure heated properly so that interior finishing can proceed without interruption.

Plastering was finished a short time ago and work of painting the inside is now under way.

The sound-proof (or acoustical) ceilings were completed recently. Corridors are also featured with this type of ceiling.

Work of laying the tile flooring in the kitchen and laundry is going forward.

The beautiful terrazzo floors were finished a short time ago. They add to the general sanitary condition of the hospital, as well as to help make it fireproof.

Emergency lighting units have been installed, tested out, and found to work perfectly.

Some Equipment In Much of the sterilizing equipment has arrived and is now in place.

The phone switchboard is on hand and will be installed within the next two weeks.

Workmen are beginning to install the metal cabinet work in the various rooms.

Much equipment is beginning to arrive. It is stored temporarily in the Midland Grocery Co. building on Main Street.

This equipment will not be installed until the last minute to insure that it will be in perfect condition when ready for use.

At the present time the work appears to be moving slowly, as (Please turn to Page Twelve)

The other night she exhausted her supply of old shoes, magazines and books trying to quiet the noisy night prowler. Her haggard eyes told of her battle the next day.

Apparently the first salvo she fired didn't tell on the intruders. But she has hopes that her "Big Bertha"—the pile of brick bats she has stored away in readiness—will bring peace and quiet to her neighborhood again.

Russell Mowery of Paint Township has an interesting bank book which was the property of his grandfather, Evan Brock, well known farmer and stockman of Paint Township, who died many years ago.

The old pass book is on the "First National Bank of Washington, O.," and bears the date of 1867.

The First National Bank was one of the old time banks. I believe it preceded the former Peoples and Drivers Bank here.

In addition to the usual notations of deposits, the book contains numerous figures and information written in pencil, as late as 1887.

Miner Makes Living as Fox Hunter

CADIZ, Feb. 23—(AP)—A foxy coal miner is Sheldon Colvin. That's why he is earning money despite the coal mine strike.

Colvin, who claims to be Ohio's No. 1 fox hunter, is capturing as many as 25 foxes a day.

Since mid-October, he has trapped and killed 159 of the fleet-footed animals. Harrison County commissioners paid him $577 in bounties.

The commissioners were faced with a mounting toll of livestock and other animals, all bitten by rabid foxes. So they offered a bounty of $3 for each fox killed.

But they underestimated Colvin's prowess. Twice he broke the bounty bank and special funds had to be appropriated.

Colvin's trapping venture began two years ago when he caught two coyotes that had played havoc with sheep. Scores of hunters had tried for weeks to collect the $200 reward offered by the county and sheep raisers for the animals' heads.

Colvin moved in with his traps, and in less than 24 hours he had the money.

His trapping procedures are ingenious, neighbors say. He sets them at night when the animals take to their fox holes.

Colvin wears heavy boots and gloves and leaves no trace of human scent in the steel mechanisms. He leaves a trace of female fox scent as bait. How, he won't say.

At daybreak he sets out on his rounds, often returning with as (Please turn to Page Twelve)

Ku Kluxers Blamed In Alabama Killing

PELL CITY, Ala., Feb. 23—(AP)—An unmasked gang shot a white storekeeper to death at his home last night just after he told a son: "I think the Ku Kluxers are after me."

The victim, 39-year-old Charlie Hurst, fell fatally wounded as he snatched a rifle from a son and fired three shots at his assailants. The son, Howard Hurst, 19, was wounded in the hip.

The younger Hurst told officers he was sure his father's shots struck someone in the car. "I don't see how he could have missed," he commented.

Young Hurst, a cotton mill worker, said he knew of no motive for the attack.

Free Hand Wanted by Lustron To Continue Its Operations

COLUMBUS, Feb. 23—(AP)—If given a "reasonable hand and free operation," Lustron would be operating at a profit in seven months, a spokesman declared yesterday.

The Reconstruction Finance Corporation, which backed the prefabricated housing plant with $37,500,000, Tuesday said to collect $36,466,273.01 it says is still owed on the loans.

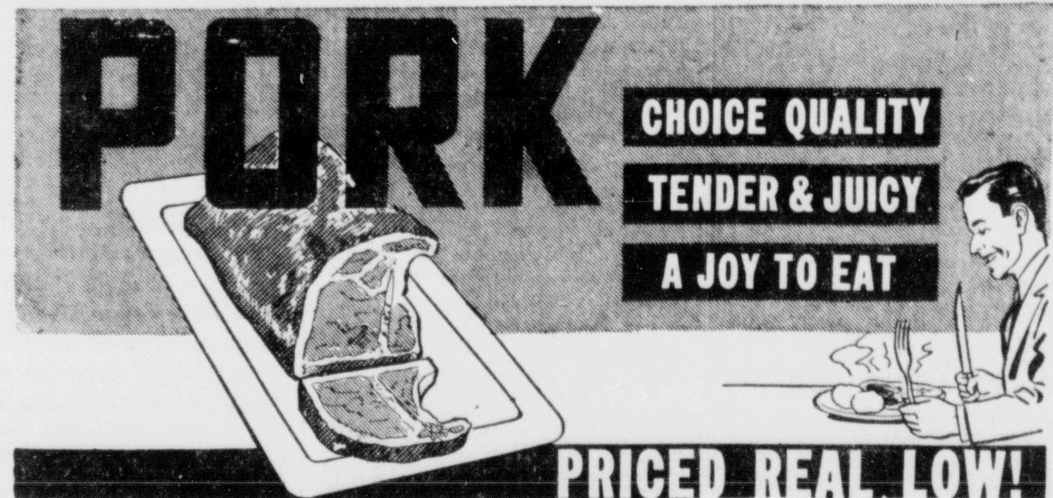

The RFC wants to foreclose its mortgages and have U. S. District Court appoint a receiver for the company.

A Lustron spokesman said: "Nothing in the present action of the Reconstruction Finance Corporation, has altered management's confidence in the ability to reach a profit level by the third quarter of the present year, if the corporation is allowed to continue operation."

He added: "Lustron is still a going con- (Please turn to Page Twelve)

Income Tax Explanations

By JAMES MARLOW
WASHINGTON, Feb. 23—(P)—Here are some examples of using the 1040 short form in making your 1949 income tax return.

Two points to remember:
1. When husbands and wives file a joint return, both must sign it in the lower right hand corner. Otherwise, the collector will consider it a single return.

2. You must attach to the 1040 short form, when you turn it in, any form W-2, the withholding receipt, given you by a boss for taxes deducted from your wages or salary in 1949.

Answering the questions on the 1040 short form—pages 1 and 2—are obvious and easy. Just answer each question as you come to it, starting from the top of page 1. Don't skip around.

Find your tax in the table on page 4. When you've finished, tear off page 1 and turn it in to the collector with any tax you owe. If you should get a refund, mark that in the proper place on page 1. The collector will send it to you.

Jones, unmarried, no dependents. He had $4,500 in salary from which tax was withheld and $200 in dividends from which no tax was withheld, a total of $4,700.

Since he's unmarried and has no dependents, he can claim only one exemption, his own. Every one filing a return gets at least one exemption, his own. Each exemption you can claim means $600 knocked off your income before what's left can be taxed.

So, on page 4, opposite $4,700 ($4,700 to $4,750) Jones finds his tax in the first column, which shows the tax on a person with that much income, claiming one exemption. His tax is $652.

Jones' boss during the year withheld $608 from his salary in taxes. So Jones finds, because of that extra $200 in untaxed dividends, that he owes an additional $44 in taxes, or a total of $652.

Take Kelly. Like Jones, he's single. His income, also, was $4,700. $4,500 in salary, $200 in dividends. But, unlike Jones, Kelly had a dependent, his mother. Kelly's total tax, because of that exemption for a dependent, is only $536, as you can see under the second column, on the table, showing the tax on a person with $4,700 ($4,700 to $4,750) claiming two exemptions.

So, whereas the tax on Jones with no dependents was $652, the tax on Kelly with one more exemption than Jones, was $536, or $114 lower.

Now take Smith. He's married. Like Jones and Kelly, his income was $4,700. His wife had none. For some reason, maybe failure to understand the law, his wife fails to file jointly with him. Smith files his own return, merely claiming the $600 exemption he's entitled to for her as a wife who had no income.

The tax on this absent-minded couple is $536, the same as it was on Kelly, the single man with one dependent. You find that tax.

CIRCUIT RIDER
My grandfather was ordained Minister in eighteen forty-three.

First to enter the Minstrey, From our family tree.
His wonderful personality,
As he took the sacred pledge,
His world seemed happy and bright.

The forests were alive with danger,
Of wild beasts and Indians too,
It took a brave heart to conquer,
And carry the message through.

The forests were dotted with cabins,
New forests were coming now
To wrestle a living from the forests,
By the sweat of anxious brows.

Now we are reaping the harvests,
And having comforts galore,
While our ancestors are enjoying
The bliss, of the Heavenly shore.

And looking at our family tree,
Maybe not quite as good as it should be,
We are thankful that our guide
Gave us courage to stem the tide.

The churches were log cabins,
The members loyal and true,
The minister taught the Bible,
And a hope of Heaven too.

Fifty years of service
As a minister,
Proclaiming the gospel story,
Leaving his face, a halo of glory.

A spirit of unselfish devotion,
And unfeeling brotherly love,
His loving deeds of kindness,

Indianapolis Girl Wins Pie Bake Contest

CHICAGO, Feb. 23 — (P) — Jacqueline Hanneman, 17-year-old Indianapolis high school senior, won the annual national cherry pie baking contest yesterday, topping 19 other contestants. Betty Zimmerman of Berlin Heights, O., another 17-year-old, captured second place. The Ohio girl received a check for $75, the winner $150 and a trip to Washington.

"ITS SO EASY TO PLACE A WANT AD"

$536, opposite $4,700 ($4,700 to $4,750) in column 2 which shows the tax on a married person filing separately but claiming two exemptions.

Why were the Smiths absent-minded? They forgot that the present law gives married couples a break if they file jointly. It allows them to split their income, each claiming half. This throws each half into a lower tax bracket to give them a lower, total tax.

Now take Brown, Married. Same income as Jones, Kelly and Smith: $4,700. Brown's wife had no income. But they file a joint return. The tax on the Browns is $307 (column 3), or $28 less than the tax on the Smiths whose case was identical but who failed to file jointly.

A wife with less than $600 income does not have to file a return but—if she had any income, no matter how small, then—unless she files jointly with her husband he can claim no exemption for her at all.

(If her income was $600 or more, she could file jointly with her husband and each of them on the one return would get his own $600 exemption, a total of $1,200.

The Record-Herald Thursday, Feb. 23, 1950 5
Washington C. H., Ohio

If they file separately she would claim her $600 exemption on her return, he'd claim his $600 on his return.)

Now take the John Does. His income was $4,650. His wife had $50 income from sewing, which gave them a total of $4,700, just like Jones, Kelly Smith and Brown.

They file a joint return. The tax on them is $507, (third column, opposite $4,700, showing the tax on that much income for a married couple filing jointly.)

Suppose Doe's wife fails to file jointly. Since she had income but does not file jointly with her husband he can't claim any exemption for her. He can claim only one exemption, his own. So the tax on his $4,650 income is $643. (Column one, opposite $4,650, ($4,650 to $4,700) showing the tax on a person claiming only his own exemption.)

Tomorrow: using the 1040 long form.)

Ten New Members of DAR Are Honor Guests at Annual George Washington Tea

The members and invited guests of the Washington Court House Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution assembled at the charming home of Mrs. L. L. Brock, on Wednesday, February twenty-second, the 218th anniversary.

Mrs. Brock's daughter, Mrs. Robert Brubaker was the gracious hostess for this annual George Washington Tea and reception for new members.

In opening the brief business meeting which preceded the program, Mrs. John M. Weade, Regent, expressed the thought that we as Daughters trust we have cherished, maintained and fostered true love of our country.

Mrs. Weade, Regent, assisted by Mrs. D. H. Rowe, Chaplain opened the meeting with the impressive D. A. R. ritual and salute to the Flag, followed by the singing of "America."

Mrs. Willard Bitzer, chairman of the Good Citizenship Contest, stressed the importance of citizenship in our country, and then introduced the six high school girls who entered the contest.

These Good Citizenship Contestants are, Misses Mary Sue Belles, Ann Grillo, Jane Huff and Marilyn Van Voorhis of Washington Court House and Misses Norma Jean Dorn and Rosemary Thompson of Madison Mills.

Each girl received a scarlet carnation from the Chapter and Miss Mary Sue Belles, was given a G. C. P. pin in recognition of her high score.

Mrs. Weade regent, then asked Miss Belles to read her winning one page paper "How Motion Pictures Have Affected My Education."

Fourteen seniors from the Washington High School had competed in the Motion Picture Contest. Mrs. E. J. Merkle, state chairman of the D. A. R. Museum, sent a card of thanks to the Chapter for its generous subscription of the Ohio Room Redecoration.

Garden Club Luncheon Guests Of Mrs. Fountain

Mrs. Ruby Fountain entertained the members of the Marilee Garden Club at a luncheon at her home in Good Hope Wednesday. Eighteen members and three guests were seated by the gracious hostess at small tables for the serving of the delicious meal, and decorations on each table were red sweet peas in crystal bowls. With a dessert course carrying out a clever George Washington Birthday theme.

Following a congenial luncheon hour the meeting was presided over by the president, Miss Clara Rowland, opening by reading a poem "Ohio Pride."

The reports of the secretary and treasurer were heard and roll call was responded to by naming a wild flower.

The program consisted of a paper entitled "Wild Flowers of Ohio" given by Mrs. Clarence Thomas who illustrated her talk with pictures of the flowers.

Mrs. Glenn L. Smith gave a talk on the subject "Forcing Spring Inside."

The displayed branches of forsythia, spirea, pussywillows and other spring flowers to show how the forcing of these shrubs can be accomplished.

Homemade flower containers were displayed by several of the members, which added interest to the program.

A period of informal visiting was enjoyed by the group, following the close of the program.

Guests included by the hostess were, Mrs. Ethel Goens, Mrs. Charles Schreiner, and Miss Effie Palmer.

and accepted. World Day of Prayer on Friday February 24 at the church was announced by Rev. Tucker.

The program following consisted of movies shown by Mrs. Elliott of scenes taken in Florida, the Rose Bowl game in California and others taken in the community.

Guests included were Misses Eleanor Jo Elliott, Delores Foster, Lloyd Davis, Hugh Wilson, Merrill Lawson, and Eugene and Jackie Elliott.

Mr. and Mrs. Elliott were assisted in the hospitalities by Mr. and Mrs. Dale Wilson and Mrs. Ella Blake.

90th Birthday To Be Celebrated

Mrs. James M. Huchison will celebrate her ninetieth birthday anniversary at her home in Bloomington on Sunday February 26. Mrs. Huchison is the daughter of the late Allen Jackson Yeoman and Amanda Simms Yeoman, and was born near Rock Mills.

Mrs. James M. Huchison

Her great grandfather had the first mill at Rock Mills in 1817 and one of her Revolutionary ancestors Stephen Yeoman, is buried in the Rock Mills Cemetery.

Mr. Huchison passed away in 1931.

Mrs. Huchison has three children, two daughters, Mrs. Millie Wilt with whom she resides on Midland Avenue, Bloomington, Mrs. W. C. Coll of Jeffersonville and one son Elder Eldon A. Huchison of Hamilton.

Mrs. Huchison is the last living pioneer member of the Harmony Primitive Baptist Church near Eber.

A small family dinner will be held at noon on Sunday in her honor and while no other special celebration is being planned her friends will be cordially welcome to call during the afternoon.

A rainfall of one inch in 15 minutes is regarded as a serious soil erosion danger.

Social Session Follows Meeting Of Auxiliary

The regular meeting of the American Legion Auxiliary was held Wednesday in the Legion Hall, and was followed with a card party and social session.

Mrs. Michael Helfrich presided over the business meeting which opened in ritualistic form.

The secretary's report was given by Mrs. Edward Sexton and Mrs. Robert Creamer gave the treasurer's report.

Reports of the various standing committees gave gratifying reports on the three banquets served during this month.

The members voted to purchase three children's tickets for the community concert series, which

Marriage Takes Place In California

The marriage of Miss Amie Louis McCune daughter of Mrs. Naoma McCune of this city, and Mr. Leland McCune of Dayton, to Mr. Ernest B. Ravenhorst, son of Mrs. Henry J. Ravenhorst and the late Mr. Ravenhorst of Sunnyvale, California is being announced by the bride's mother.

The ceremony was performed on Saturday February 11 in the Church of The Wayfarer at Carmel-by-the Sea, California by Dr. K. Tillmore Gray at 3:30 P. M.

The couple was unattended and the bride chose for her marriage a spruce green taffeta street length dress, accented with toast accessories, and her corsage was a brown orchid. After a short wedding trip down the coast of Southern California the couple will be at home at 469 Morse Avenue, Sunnyvale, California.

The new Mrs. Ravenhorst is a graduate of New Holland High School and until her departure for California was a member of the office force of the Producers Livestock Co-operative Association in this city.

Mr. Ravenhorst graduate from high school in Kellogg, Idaho, and spent four years in military service with three and one half years service in the European Theater of war. He is now employed by the San Jose Gas and Electric Company in San Jose, Calif.

In addition to the honor guest Mary Lou Hatfield, and Kathryn Minshall made up the small party.

Romance in Japan Congress Problem

WASHINGTON, Feb. 23—(P)—Romances that blossomed in Japan will bloom in Ohio if Congress only passes two bills.

Dale O. Nichols of Leetonia, O., and Don Jones of Toledo, O., met Japanese girls while serving with the army in Japan. The House yesterday passed and sent to the Senate bills to permit the girls to come to the United States and marry their Ohio sweethearts.

One bill would let Miss Haruko Teramoto rejoin Nichols and the other would permit Miss Mitsuko Uemura to marry Jones.

A third bill would permit David Henry Kornhauser of Cleveland to bring his Japanese wife to this country.

"Everything in Drugs"

The Time The Anti-Trust Lawyers Killed Their Own Case!

For ten years the anti-trust lawyers have been attacking the business methods that make it possible to give the public the best quality food at the lowest prices.

In our last ad we told you how Federal Judge W. H. Atwell, at Dallas, threw the anti-trust lawyers and all their inflammatory charges against A&P right out of his court.

But the anti-trust lawyers were not satisfied with decisions against them by three federal judges.

They still wanted to destroy A&P.

They Appealed to New Orleans

So they appealed Judge Atwell's decision to the three-judge Circuit Court at New Orleans.

One of the three, Judge Curtis L. Waller, agreed with Judge Atwell that the case should be dismissed.

The other two members of the Circuit Court, Judge Joseph C. Hutcheson, Jr., and Judge Allen Cox, although saying the case should be tried, agreed that the indictment was vague and contained many allegations which were inflammatory.

They decided that Judge Atwell at Dallas should protect A&P from these inflammatory allegations and could order the anti-trust lawyers to supply the defendants with a bill of particulars.

So the case was back in Dallas again.

Judge Atwell, carrying out the decision of the Circuit Court, struck out the inflammatory matter.

He said that without this inflammatory and prejudicial matter the Grand Jury might never have returned the indictment.

Judge Atwell said to the anti-trust lawyers:

"There are many statements in the indictment which are not at all in violation, and are highly prejudicial and inflammatory."

The anti-trust lawyers objected. They advanced an amazing argument. They said that the removal of their inflammatory allegations (which all four judges had agreed did not belong in the indictment) destroyed their case.

Judge Atwell instructed the anti-trust lawyers to furnish the court with a bill of particulars. In short, he wanted specific charges instead of vague generalities. He set the deadline for furnishing this material at January 15th, 1944.

When the anti-trust lawyers twice asked for more time, pleading sickness among their staff, Judge Atwell extended the time to February 25th because he believed that they were honestly trying, in good faith, to prepare the material he had requested.

Actually, it developed, they were using the time to get ready to drop the case in Dallas and start it in another court.

They Quit in Dallas

On February 26th, while the judge was still waiting for his answer, and without any previous notice to him, the anti-trust lawyers gave a story to the newspapers in Washington, announcing that they were dropping the case in Dallas.

They said that it was their intention "to file a substantially similar suit in an appropriate jurisdiction at an early date."

The "early date" turned out to be the same day.

As soon as one anti-trust lawyer killed the case in Dallas, another anti-trust lawyer filed a new case in Danville, Illinois. This new case made most of the same allegations that had been made and dropped in Dallas: and that are being made against us today.

So now, according to the anti-trust lawyers, all four judges who had ruled on the Dallas case were wrong.

Despite defeats in three federal courts in widely separated parts of the country, they continued their campaign to destroy A&P.

When Judge Atwell heard of their action he ordered the anti-trust lawyers to prepare an order for his signature dismissing the Dallas case.

In signing this order he said to the anti-trust lawyers:

"This nolle prosequi does not have the sanction or approval of this court. That is not necessary, nor that the government ask for the court's approval."

"It is, however, a matter that may be presented to the other court and may be of interest to the people at large."

So after their efforts to destroy A&P had failed in Washington, D. C., Wilson, North Carolina, and Dallas, Texas, the anti-trust lawyers moved on to Danville, Illinois.

They were still determined to destroy this company which had brought more and better food at lower cost to millions of American families.

They Were Wrong Three Times Before!

Three times the anti-trust lawyers went into federal courts and made serious and damaging charges against A&P.

Three times federal judges said the anti-trust lawyers were wrong and rendered decisions against them.

In previous ads in this series we told you about these other anti-trust "cases" involving us, which the judges said were not cases at all.

We think you should know about these previous cases, because once again the anti-trust lawyers are making damaging "allegations" that could seriously affect our business if they were believed by the public.

There was the time in Washington, D. C., when they said we and other good American citizens conspired to fix the price of bread in that city.

This was the time Federal Judge T. Alan Goldsborough ruled that A&P and the other defendants did not even need to put in a defense. He instructed the jury to bring in a verdict of "not guilty".

It was the time Judge Goldsborough said to the anti-trust lawyers:

"If you were to show this record to any experienced trial lawyer in the world, he would tell you that there was not any evidence at all."

"Honestly, I have never in my over forty years' experience seen tried a case that was as absolutely devoid of evidence as this. That is the honest truth. I have never seen one like it."

There was the time in Wilson, North Carolina, they said we and other good American citizens conspired to fix prices paid farmers for their potatoes.

This was the time Federal Judge C. C. Wyche directed the jury to bring in a verdict of "not guilty".

It was the time Judge Wyche said to the anti-trust lawyers:

"In my opinion there is no testimony produced from which it can reasonably be inferred that the defendants entered into a combination to depress or lower the price of potatoes."

"I might say that I never tried a case in my life where a greater effort, more work, more investigation had been done, combing almost with a fine-tooth comb to gather evidence."

"But, as was said a long time ago, you can't make brick without straw, and you can't make a case without facts."

There was the time in Dallas, Texas, when they made practically the same "allegations" they are making today.

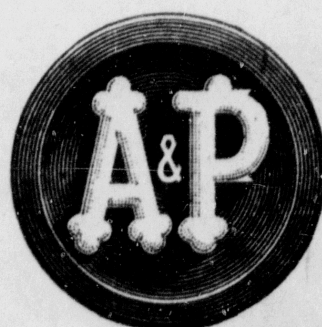

This was the time Federal Judge W. H. Atwell ruled that the case should not even be tried. He said that the indictment contained inflammatory statements that he would not permit to be presented to a jury.

It was the time Judge Atwell said to the anti-trust lawyers:

"I know of no American rule, and I wish I had the power to underscore the word 'American,' which permits us to try a man because of his size."

"If I thought I was presiding over a court and that I might have to sentence some person because he was a great big fellow, or because he was a Lilliputian, I would feel like resigning. God knows we don't want it ever to occur in America that the size is going to determine whether a man is guilty or innocent."

Winning Pupils Named in TB Seal Contest

Prizes Awarded by
TB Association
In County Schools

The winners of the crayon drawing contest conducted in the county schools under the sponsorship of the Fayette County Tuberculosis and Health Association have been announced.

In trying for the three prizes offered at each school, the pupils had to color a large-sized replica of a tuberculosis seal.

The contest was conducted through the various grades during January, but the names of the winners have been straggling in to County Supt. of Schools W. J. Hilly's office through this month.

Some of the schools restricted the contest to the first four grades while others limited the competition to pupils in the second through the sixth grades. Prizes for first, second and third place in each school were made available by J. Paul Strevey, executive-secretary of the county Tuberculosis and Health Association.

Artistry the Aim
The idea of the contest was to color the big bird and lettering on the seal neatly and in the proper colors and shading that would add to its effect.

Just one first-grader, Patty Shoemaker of the Eber school, finished in the running. She took third place.

There were just three third-graders winning first place. These were Henry Lee Whaley of Wilson, Dale Wilson of New Martinsburg and Judy Lynn Smith of Chaffin.

Stanton: First prize, Nancy Jane Pollard, fifth grade; second, Ruth Perkins, fifth grade and third, Roma Clay, fourth grade.

Wilson: First prize, Henry Lee Whaley, third grade; second, Bobby Lee Caplinger, fourth grade and third, Nancy Ann Hurler, second grade.

Olive: First prize, Grace Schubert, fourth grade; second, Wanda Clay, second grade and third, Donnie Vance, fourth grade.

Bookwalter: First prize, Annette Hidy, fourth grade; second, Tommy Whiteside, second grade and third, Jerry Moberly, fourth grade.

New Martinsburg: First prize, Dale Wilson, third grade; second, Anthony Hicks, second grade and third Shirley May Sword, third grade.

Chaffin: First prize, Judy Lynn Smith, third grade; second, Kenneth Yahn, fourth grade and third Linda Lou Haines, second grade.

Marion: First prize, to Bobby

Wise, fourth grade; second Arlene Bondurant, fourth grade and third, Raymond Palmer, second grade.

Jeffersonville: First prize to Dorothy Steen, sixth grade; second, David Brown, fifth grade and third Richard Dean Byrd, fourth grade.

Good Hope: First prize to Delbert Knisley, sixth grade; second, Jimmy Taylor, sixth grade and third, Annie Nesser, fourth grade.

Madison Mills: First prize to Thomas Randolph, fifth grade; second, Rosella Sparks, fifth grade and third, Lucinda Schlichter, fourth grade.

Eber: First prize to Betty Brown, fourth grade; second, Norman Cawley, second grade and third, Patty Shoemaker, first grade.

Bloomington: First prize to Judy Lynn Smith, third grade; second, Anthony Hicks, second grade and third Shirley May Sword, third grade.

Chaffin: First prize, Judy Lynn Smith, third grade; second, Kenneth Yahn, fourth grade and third Linda Lou Haines, second grade.

Marion: First prize, to Bobby

Food Prices Go Up Slightly

(By the Associated Press)
Most food price changes were upward this week, and pork topped the list.

Loon pork chops, for example, climbed two to 11 cents a pound in many competitive chain stores across the country. An agriculture department market analyst attributed the advance to unexpectedly heavy demand early in the week, probably stimulated by colder weather.

A wholesaler in New York concurred, adding that many large quantity buyers had reduced purchasing ahead of the Lenten season, which started Wednesday, and then were caught short of supplies. The American Institute of Food Distribution said "growers have their holdings of hogs down to where they are in control of the market, until they start selling autumn pig crops in late March."

Beef prices were unchanged in many places but up sharply in a few others—one large chain in Chicago at midweek quoted sirloin steak 14 cents a pound higher than last week. Frying chickens cost two to four cents a pound more in several big marketing centers, and top grade eggs were up one to four cents a dozen.

Most produce departments marked up cauliflower, broccoli and snap beans, but celery was down slightly as receipts increased from the major seasonal production area of Florida.

Unusual food highlight of the week was the arrival in northern markets of the season's first green corn on the cob from Florida—earliest for this time of year in the memory of several agriculture department market reporters.

It sold quickly at "specialty" prices, around 15 cents an ear at retail.

Food shippers this week will find many stores featuring Lenten specials and trimming prices on non-meat items like fish, cheese, macaroni, oysters, vegetable chow mein.

New Shrimp Source

An official of the fish and wildlife service reported that shrimp from the recently-discovered shrimp fishing area off Key West, Fla., had started reaching big-city markets as far away as New York and Philadelphia, and prices were dropping as a result. A. W. Anderson, chief of commercial fisheries for the service, said the new fishing grounds in less than one month of large-scale operations yielded $237,000 worth of shrimp, wholesale value.

A Senate-House conference committee agreed this week on a compromise version of bills to repeal federal taxes on oleomargarine. Ratification by both chambers is expected next week.

The compromise discards a Senate-approved provision which would have required colored oleomargarine to be packaged in triangular form for retail stores, but the spread still would have to be in triangular patties when served in public eating places. Passage of the bill would not affect bans in 21 states on manufacture or sale of colored oleo.

Agriculture department headlined these foods on its most-plentiful list for March: apples, canned peaches, dried prunes, raisins, beets, cabbage, carrots, lettuce, potatoes, canned corn, canned lima beans, and dry beans.

Also, eggs, broilers, fryers, hens, fresh and frozen fish, manufactured daily products pork and pork products.

Germany Gets in Hot Quarrel Over Bare Facts in Magazines

BY RICHARD K. O'MALLEY
FRANKFURT, Feb. 23 —(AP)—The bare facts about nudity in some West German magazines are causing increased irritation between the state and federal governments.

The federal government says the myriad of German magazines which feature pictures of men and women in the nude are often pornographic. It wants to pass restrictive laws at least partly controlling circulation of such publications.

Some states reply that the magazines represent culture, nothing more, and that cultural affairs are a state matter and no concern of the federal government. The states also argue that magazine censorship is a dangerous trend toward ultimate control of a free press.

Church Asks Curbs

The federal government, backed by many church groups, says it wants to keep such publications restricted so that teen-agers can't get their hands on the magazines. So far, no restrictive law has been passed and the nude magazine business goes nakedly on its way.

A survey of German news stands would raise the hair on a Puritan's scalp.

For example, there is a snappy number called "Sun Fun". It has pictures of men and women, boys and girls gamboling without benefit of clothing on beaches or greenwards. "Sun Fun" says it is a back to nature magazine. Some critics think it has overdone the trip.

A dealer says: "It sells very well, of course some 'Blue Noses' are against it, but between you and me, they often are good customers themselves."

"The Sun Ray" is another publication which is displayed with a modest paper band around its midriff. This covers a cover girl stalking nude out of a lake. Frankfurt news dealers have an unwritten agreement with the police. When a cover girl is too uncovered, they haul out the paper petticoat.

"Free Life is a magazine featuring nude sports. Nowhere in its February issue is there a picture of anyone with enough clothes on to flag a train."

Theme Always Same

Through all the "health nudity" magazines runs the same theme. Naked, often chilly looking people casually wander around in the buff, tossing medicine balls, gazing soulfully out to sea, or acting rugged on a pair of skis. Some of them look dreadfully bored.

The news dealers take the magazines and their cash sales with calm detachment. "Ach," muttered one, "So the have no clothes on. If they want to run around like that and maybe act a little nutty, who cares?"

"Man and Nature" seems to be a family type picture magazine, with fat, smiling children frolicking on the shoulders of fat, smiling mothers—all without benefit of tailoring.

Authorities are even more concerned with a rash of magazines which spurn "Art" for downright trash and smut. There was an upsurge of these in Bavaria and police confiscated many.

There are also "Novels" which would knock a ladies' sewing circle for a loop—or a men's smoking room, for that matter.

These authorities are determined to squelch, pointing out they are a distinct danger to the development of German youth.

At present, however, the big tussle is about the nude picture magazines, probably on the theory you don't have to be able to read to be shocked.

A LIGHT COMEDY-DRAMA has been booked to open the week's entertainment at the Fayette Theater. "Dancing in the Dark," which is to start a two-day run Sunday, stars William Powell and Betsy Drake. They are shown in the above scene from the picture in their roles of mentor and pupil as Powell gives Betsy a singing lesson so she can handle the melodious score by Arthur Schwartz and Howard Dietz that is one of the picture's principal attractions. Also starred in the George Jessel production is Mark Stevens. The movie is done in Technicolor.

Robert Palmer Resigns Position

Robert Palmer, for six years a member of the Washington C. H. police force, has resigned, effective immediately.

He will devote all of his time to electrical work, having built up a substantial business in this line during the past few years while not on active duty.

His successor has not been named, but an appointment is expected within a short time.

One of the several unusual cases in which Palmer figured while he was a member of the force was the time he shot and wounded Homer Anders while the latter was burglarizing the Bar-ches Store on East Court Street a few years ago.

Anders refused to come out of the store when discovered. When he sought to escape, Palmer opened fire. Anders was captured. He was sent to the penitentiary and died there about a year later.

Consumer Prices Down 2.3 Percent

WASHINGTON, Feb. 23—(AP)—Consumer prices declined 2.3 percent during 1949 and at the start of this year were 4 percent under their postwar peak, the commerce department reported today.

While food prices had fallen farthest from their crest, they continued to be "high in relation to those for other commodities when compared with the prewar situation in either 1939 or 1926," the department said.

Clothing prices to the consumer took the biggest proportional decline, 7.3 percent, in 1949, but were off only 7.8 percent from

Income Inheritance Is To Be Given Away

BELOIT, Wis., Feb. 23—(AP)—A Beloit college professor says he's going to give away his inheritance of a life income from one-third of a $2,000,000 trust fund.

Prof. Marriott C. Morris, Jr., who says he'll never take a penny for his own use, added he'll probably give the money to the cause of international peace.

The $2,000,000 trust fund for Morris and his brother and sister was provided in an order in Philadelphia Orphan's Court Mon-

To Garrison Alaska with 24,000 Troops

Military Planners Say Large Masses Of Men Not Needed

WASHINGTON--Military planners intend to have 24,000 Army and Air Force troops in Alaska by June 30, 1952. They believe that will be ample defense for the territory. They agree with Gov. Ernest Gruening of Alaska that the present force of 7,500 men there is "next to nothing."

But they differ with some officials who have urged that very heavy forces be placed in the territory. Large masses of fighting men could not be used there, they say, either by attackers or defenders. They could not be provided in the field with the vast amount of supplies and equipment needed for modern warfare.

There is only one railroad of any length, the narrow gauge one from Anchorage to Fairbanks single-track most of the way. Highways are few and inadequate. None of them, including the new 2,000-mile Alaska (formerly Alcan) Highway, that stretches from central Canada into the heart of Alaska, has a hard surface. The long, deep winter freeze in the Arctic would wreck any surface but 18-inch reinforced concrete. The roads are best in winter, when they are frozen and the bridges are intact. Bridges often are washed away in the spring floods -- and 177 bridges cross major rivers on the Alaska Highway alone.

A limited amount of extra-wide-track tractor equipment can be moved across country, but it would confront snow as deep as 50 feet in some of the passes in winter -- and the tundra becomes muck in the summer, when the ice melts above the permafrost. Tank trucks and other wheeled vehicles could run only on highways.

Emphasis On Air
The program by mid-1952 -- as soon as housing and support facilities can be provided -- is to garrison each of the two large interior airfields near Fairbanks with 2,000 Air Force and Army troops. They are Ladd and Eielson fields, about 40 miles apart. Heavy stockpiles of oil, ammunition and other military needs will be laid in. Then the remaining 20,000 men will be stationed near Anchorage, at the Army's Fort Richardson base and the Air Force's Elmendorf Field.

In case of attack on the interior air fields, men from Anchorage could be flown in. If more help were needed, reinforcements from the states could be brought up by air. It would, theoretically, take 6,000 men to defeat 2,000 holding strongly fortified positions. To land 6,000 men in the tundra around the fields and keep them supplied with equipment by air, while under aerial attack from the fields, would be a colossal feat.

The Alaska strategy centers on the three big air fields. As long as they are held firmly Alaska will be safe, the military thinkers believe. A successful amphibious landing on the Alaskan coast will be impossible as long as the U. S. Navy maintains its present world supremacy, in the opinion of the Army men.

The strategists acknowledge that the territory could be seized now with comparative ease. To them, however, it doesn't seem so attractive an objective as some officials have claimed. It could not be used as the starting point for a large-scale attack on the interior of the continent by mass armies, because of the supply difficulty.

The Russians, for example, couldn't load their ships at any closer port than Vladivostok. And that 3,900-mile communication line would be far more than the Russian merchant marine or Navy could maintain at this time.

Miner a Fox Hunter

Colvin, a past president of the Ohio State Trappers Association, was hired by the Willow Brook Beagle Club to clean out the foxes on their land near Tappan Lake.

Last year the club couldn't hold its meet because all the rabbits had been outfoxed. This year, after Colvin's house cleaning, the rabbits scurried around in abundance.

The miner also sells the pelts and carcasses. Fur dealers aren't paying much this year, so the pelts bring only from 50 cents to $1 each. A few extra dollars come in from reduction plants, which buy the carcasses.

With no end to the coal strike in sight, Colvin already is starting on his share of $1,500 in bounties the commissioners are offering in 1950.

Lustron Asks Time

cern and, given a reasonable hand and free operation, will begin to show a cash return on the taxpayers' dollars very shortly." Lustron recently told the RFC it expected to sell 4,500 homes through its dealer organization and 4,000 more to development builders. This estimate still stands. "Previously, both the RFC and the spokesman said. He added: Lustron had agreed that 3,000 home sales per year was Lustron's break-even point." (That break-even point is when income matches all expenses, including those for production and distribution.)

Production continued today at the Lustron plant of more than 1,900,000 square feet.

New Hospital

Nearly all of the plumbing has been completed, George Pensyl, a member of the building committee, said Thursday in discussing the institution.

Most of the equipment, which includes thousands of small items, has been ordered, and is expected well in advance of the opening of the institution.

Landscaping work will be completed this spring. The grounds will be made as attractive as possible.

Driveways were built last fall, and have been used as the work progressed.

Before the institution is opened for use as a "public inspection day" will be held by the building committee. The public will be invited to visit the institution and get first hand information regarding it.

Funeral Services Held For Milton Bennett

Funeral services for Milton Bennett were held at 2 P. M. Wednesday at his late residence, with Rev. W. A. Ervin, pastor of the New Holland Methodist Church, in charge.

Rev. Ervin read the scripture, offered prayer, delivered the sermon and read two hymns. There were many persons at the services. Burial was made in the New Holland Cemetery. Pallbearers

County Fathers Can Compete for $100 U. S. Bond

If there are any fathers in Fayette County who boast big families, they will have a chance to win a $100 United States Savings Bond if they merely write a letter.

The man of the house should write to National Father's Day committee, 50 East 42nd Street, New York, 17, N. Y.

A nationwide search is being conducted for the American father with the largest number of living children, grandchildren and great-grandchildren. It is being held because of Father's Day, June 18th. This day is dedicated to strengthening family life.

Alvin Austin, executive director of the National Father's Day committee, said the tendency in this country is for smaller families.

He said he is hopeful that this trend can be reversed by pointing out the number of large families in this country and how harmoniously they are growing up. Those who write should give the name, age and address of the father and list the number of living children, grandchildren and great-grandchildren.

DRIVER SENTENCED

WILMINGTON--Ray Nantz, 27, Martinsville, was fined $100 and costs and given 10 days in the county jail for driving while drunk. Nantz overturned a truck on U. S. 22 east of here.

Recreation League Plays Monday Night

It's back to action again for the Recreation Basketball League teams next Monday night at the Armory.

A powerful American Legion aggregation will take the floor against Company "M" in the opening game, set for 7 P. M.

In the nightcapper, the scrappy Bloomingburg cagers will tangle with Rifles. The finale is scheduled to begin at 8 P. M.

Numerous fans hereabouts will welcome the news that the Recreation League will be staging games more frequently now that the Armory's schedule has been cleared up a good bit.

Efforts are being made to secure regular playing nights so the fans will be able to set aside and look forward to a certain night for top-notch basketball entertainment.

Don't Take Legion Lightly
The American Legion showed up strongly in their opener, losing to a last-quarter splurge by Rifles, 44-41, after leading the winners most of the way.

Mainstay of the Legion offense was McGown, ex-New Holland star, who bounced like a jumping-jack under the boards, capturing rebounds and scoring 12 points.

Kirk Tractorettes Still Out in Lead

Kirk's Tractorettes were handed a two-out-of-three setback by Helfrich's Markettes in Wednesday night's Ladies League bowling at Bowland, but they still had enough of a lead to ease any immediate worries.

Paulin's Motor Girls from Mt. Sterling widened the gap separating them from Ruth's Beauticians just a little as they won two games of their match to retain second place.

The Wade Shoes made the only clean sweep of the evening when they whitewashed the Mac Toolers.

After dropping the opener to the last place NCR girls, the King-Kashers came back to win the last two.

Lions Play At Springfield

Tough Game Is Seen For Saturday Finale

It's going to be a big night when the WHS Lions travel to Springfield's Tiffany Gym Saturday night to engage the Springfield Public Wildcats.

The Wildcats have rung up a record of ten wins and six losses this season and will play Xenia Central, Friday before meeting the Lions the following night.

At the moment, the Lions are concentrating on Greenfield McClain, having pointed their practice sessions at the team that humbled them in a previous match, 48-36.

Once past McClain, Coach Steve Lewis will be directing his strategy toward Springfield Public.

Here's what he'll have to contend with: the Wildcats have two men up around six foot four inches, with four men on the squad having shared the scoring this season. The Wildcats will start Jack Sallee and Bill Goettman at forwards, Sallee is high-point man, with 155 points this season. Goettman has 147 and McKaig, a guard, has 146. Bob Ellis, the center, is the fourth point-maker, with 129 points.

Can Be Halted
The total points indicate that the team has a balanced attack, rather than featuring any whirling dervishes who break records at each outing. Consequently, they will be tough, but can be stopped if the Lions are clicking.

A WHS win over Springfield would upset quite a few predictions based on the Wildcat's showing this season. They've beaten Columbus South, 59-57; Dayton Roosevelt, 50-46; Dayton Stivers, 44-43; Mansfield, 59-52 and lesser opponents. Incidentally, that was Dayton Roosevelt's second loss in 14 starts.

Springfield Public has lost to Columbus Central, 53-50; to Portsmouth twice, 37-43 and 56-50; to Hamilton twice, 55-31 and 54-43 and split with Middletown.

A crowd of over 2,200 people are expected to cram the gym at Springfield. One feature of the occasion will be the honoring of the 1925 Springfield High state championship team at halftime.

WCH Team Wins Duck Pin Match

The Washington C. H. entry in the Greenfield Duck Pin League won the last two games of their match with the Yellow Cabs after dropping the opener by 4 pins.

Consistency was the strength of the WCH team in racking up a total of 2357 to the Yellow Cabs' 2207.

Jamestown Team Leads Lions Loop

The Jamestown Tamers today were in first place in the Lions League after making a clean sweep of their match with the Bloomingburg Tailtwisters in Wednesday night's bowling at Bowland.

They took over the lead when the WCH Tamers, who had been setting the pace, were shut out by the WCH Cubs.

Powers, with games of 230, 232 and 192 for a total of 654, was the main reason the Jamestown boys took the top.

The Bloomingburg Claws leaptfrogged the WCH Tailtwisters into fifth place by winning all three games of their match.

The WCH Cubs moved up close behind the WCH Claws when they made a clean sweep of their match with the WCH Tamers while the Jamestown Cubs were taking two out of three from the Claws.

Mickey Cochrane Back As Rookie Teacher

WEST PALM BEACH, Fla., Feb. 23.—(P)—Mickey Cochrane, one of baseball's greatest backstops, has returned to the game after an absence of 12 years.

Cochrane joined the Connie Mack rookie school, a baseball try-out camp sponsored by the Philadelphia Athletics, yesterday as an instructor and will become coach with the Athletics on March 1.

Lions Will Know Tourney Foe After Drawings on Saturday

The Lion cagers of WHS will know Saturday what they will play in their first game of this year's divisional basketball tournament.

Calumet Entry 1-4 Favorite

ARCADIA, Calif., Feb. 23.—(P)—Anyone who bets against the powerful Calumet entry of Citation, Ponder and Two Lea in the $100,000 Santa Anita Handicap must be slightly touched in the head.

The Calumets probably will go postward at a prohibitive price of about one to four, and rightly so. Citation, if he's back in his old form of 1948, would be worth that price alone. Ponder looks like the solid member of the Calumet threesome, and the filly, Two Lea, cannot be ignored on any grounds, including her sex.

Touched or not, the bargain hunters will be well represented at Santa Anita Saturday for the thirteenth running of the golden gallop. And after the one to four Calumet trio, the next price doubtless will be no less than eight to one, and that isn't exactly a short one.

Possibly the two nearest rivals to the Calumets for public fancy will be Ben F. Whitaker's My Requite and Charles S. Howard's Irish-bred Noor.

Answer Filed In Fairgrounds Injunction Case

Interrogatories Are Answered by Fayette
County Fair Board

The Fayette County Agricultural Society, through its attorney, W. W. Hill, Thursday filed an answer to the injunction suit recently launched in the common pleas court against the Fair Board here, by Earl LeRoy Scott and Esther Scott Crone. The answer admits certain of the claims advanced by the plaintiffs and denies others.

With the answer the defendants also filed answers to the 20 interrogatories submitted by the plaintiffs in the original suit of the society to acquire the Fairgrounds by having the court fix a purchase price.

The answer asks the court to dismiss the action filed by the plaintiffs.

Answers to the interrogatories form an important part of the new move.

These answers state that the society had a committee contact the plaintiffs, but pointed out that it was unable to agree upon a price. Oral negotiations were carried on with Earl LeRoy Scott and the husband of Esther Scott Crone, the answers state.

Admission is made that there have been negotiations between the defendant and Clarence E. Wohlhetter for attempted purchase of his alleged interest in said premises, the negotiations having been carried on between the defendant and Wohlhetter's attorney. No progress was made in such negotiations, it is stated.

Admission is made that a very small part of the grounds have been used for a drive-in restaurant.

Roadside Park Constructed
It is stated in the answer that the defendants understand there has been a lease between the lessee and the plaintiffs.

The defendants have had nothing to do with lease on the drive-in restaurant the past year and do not know what will be done in the future, it is stated.

Mention is made of the roadside park constructed on part of the ground by the state without compensation to the defendants.

The defendants state they do not know whether the roadside park will be maintained in the future or not.

Admission is made that portions of the grounds have been leased for various purposes—for sales, etc. and the amount of rental given.

Many small groups have used the grounds for reunions, etc., without charge, it is set forth.

The defendants state that it is the purpose of the defendants to continue to grant such privileges and concessions.

Rentals to horse owners the past year, are mentioned in the answers to the interrogatories.

Denial is made that the defendants have any intention of selling any portion of the premises to other persons or firms.

Admission is made that it is the intention to permit the State of Ohio to erect upon some portion of said premises, a building at the expense of the state, to house state exhibits at agricultural fairs.

No negotiation with reference to erection of the building have been entered into prior to this date, it is stated.

County Courts

DIVORCE SOUGHT

Tillie Grace Parker filed for a divorce from James Arthur Parker in common pleas court. The parties were married Nov. 1, 1947, and have no children. In addition to divorce, the plaintiff asks that her former name of Tillie Grace Davis be restored. Hill and Hill represent the plaintiff.

WILL PROBATED

The will of Charles H. Bryant has been probated. The document was executed March 11, 1949, and witnessed by Charles S. Hire and Dorothy Guinn.

The entire personal property is awarded to his widow, Anna Bryant, and two daughters, Jane Hillmiller and Mary Ann Loudner in equal shares.

All of the real estate is bequeathed to his widow for life, and at her death it is to go to the two daughters.

Mrs. Bryant was named executrix of the will.

APPRAISERS NAMED

George Campbell, Frank Thatcher and Arch O. Riber have been named appraisers of the Auburn C. Glover estate.

DEADLINE IS NEAR

WASHINGTON, Feb. 23.—(P)—Today brought John L. Lewis just about his last chance to head off the danger of a multi-million dollar fine against his striking coal miners.

The chance—a quick agreement during the day or night on a strike-ending contract—looked slim to government observers sitting in on inconclusive negotiations between Lewis and the coal operators.

Meanwhile, the growing scarcity of coal clamped an ever-tightening grip on industries and homes across the nation.

There continued to be talk on Capitol Hill that Congress might vote power for the president to seize the coal mines and tell the

Green Farm Bureau Group Elects Rife

Donald Rife was elected chairman of the Green Township Farm Bureau at the annual meeting of the group Wednesday night at Buena Vista.

Other officers picked Wednesday night included the following: Russell Theobald, vice chairman and Mrs. Verne Roehm, secretary. Morris Allton of the legislative department, Ohio Farm Bureau, was the main speaker for the evening. He pointed out the problems facing agriculture at the present time.

Allton said farm prices are down 30 percent from 1947, and he stressed the importance of strong county programs.

W. W. Montgomery, county agent, spoke on the 4-H club program in the township. Mrs. Cleo Nilan announced Home Demonstration Achievement Day will be held March 30. She said the women of the township had made 145 aluminum trays in their program.

Announcement was made that the annual meeting of the Farm Bureau Cooperative Association will be held March 3 in the WHS auditorium.

Group singing was led by Mrs. Delbert Morris and Mrs. Martin Gilmore accompanied by Mrs. Eldon Marshall at the piano. At the close of the program everyone enjoyed a square dance. More than 125 were present at the meeting.

A report on the membership in the Green Township Farm Bureau showed a considerable increase during the time Charles C. Eakins, retiring chairman, served as head of the group. He was in office for five years.

miners to work in them as employees of the government. The White House said nothing.

This is Lewis' last chance because tomorrow at 10 A. M. (EST), the United Mine Workers are under orders from Judge Richmond B. Keech to "show cause" why the union shouldn't be found in contempt of court. If the union explanations don't satisfy the judge, there will be a formal hearing Monday on a contempt order.

VIOLENCE CONTINUES

PITTSBURGH, Feb. 23.—(P)—State police and roving pickets played a grim game of "hide-and-go-seek" today while non-union miners carried guns to enforce their right to work during the soft coal strike.

Western Pennsylvania's ice-coated highways were patrolled by state policemen on the alert for new outbreaks such as occurred sporadically yesterday.

Peace officers in other soft coal-producing states, including West Virginia, also feared new violence.

Three diggers were beaten yesterday at a strip (surface) mine near Clearfield, Pa. The men who inflicted the beatings promised to return in full strength today.

J. E. Crisp Dies Suddenly in Jeff

John E. Crisp, 62, died suddenly at his home in Jeffersonville at 5:30 P. M. Wednesday, following a heart attack. He had been in failing health for the past year.

Born in St. Thomas, Ont., Canada, he was employed for many years by the Ford Motor Company of Detroit. He moved to Jeffersonville about 12 years ago

A 200-man caravan also struck two mines near Pittsburgh and five truck drivers were forced to dump their loads of coal.

Sledge hammers were used to wreck coal mine equipment at two strip mines near Ligonier, Pa., and coal was dumped at a big loading platform near Murraysville, Pa.

Harry Finberg, owner of the non-union mine near Clearfield, said about 500 men were in the group which attacked his men. No one was injured seriously.

Many non-union miners continued today to carry shotguns, revolvers and tear gas bombs for protection as they worked despite the current strike of John L. Lewis' United Mine Workers.

and had been an active church and mission worker.

While in Detroit, Mr. Crisp had an active part in the establishment of a Christian mission there. He was a member of the Christian missionary alliance in Detroit. He spent much of his time later supervising the building of the Church of Christ in Christian Union on Maple Street, in Jeffersonville.

During World War II, he served with the U. S. armed forces, 14 months overseas.

Survivors include his wife, Lulu, at home; a daughter, Mrs. Leonard McClaskie, of Jeffersonville; two sisters, Mrs. Elgin Clark and Miss Edly Crisp, both of St. Thomas, Ont., Canada; one brother, William Crisp of Windsor, Canada, and three grandchildren.

Funeral services will be held at the Church of Christ in Christian Union in Jeffersonville at 2 P. M., Saturday, with burial to follow in the Fairview Cemetery in Jeffersonville.

Friends may call at the late residence at anytime. Arrangements are under the direction of the Alvin G. Little Funeral Home, of Jeffersonville.

There are more than 1,100 types of nails.

Anniversary Of Baptist Church Noted

This week is a busy one at the First Baptist Church.

On Friday a union service will be held at 2:30 P. M. for all church goers in the community who want to observe World Day of Prayer.

On Tuesday some 150 members of the church gathered at the Dayton Power and Light social room to celebrate the 110th anniversary of the First Baptist Church here.

A planned potluck dinner, which featured creamed chicken, was served to those present. The historical committee presented some facts about the church through its years of service here.

Rev. L. B. Rogers offered the invocation. Group singing was led by Mrs. W. L. Peterson and the junior choir sang the anthem, "Savior and Shepherd." The senior choir offered the spiritual "Jacobs Ladder." A film entitled "Out of the Dust", which showed the work of the Northern Baptists in Latin America, was presented.

The First Baptist Church here was organized with 11 charter members on Feb. 21, 1840.

On July 19, 1868 the first house of worship was dedicated. It cost $8,000.

Fellowship Supper Enjoyed by Many

More than two score members of Grace Methodist Church braved the rainfall to attend the monthly fellowship supper given at the church Wednesday evening.

There was an abundance of good food for the supper, which was thoroughly enjoyed. Following the fete, Rev. Allan W. Caley led the group singing. Miss Marian Christopher was at the organ.

A moving picture, "Walking With God", was then shown, with Rev. Caley operating the projector.

It was the second fellowship supper held since the "Fellowship Hall" was completed early this year.
